Knowledge—Aspiration—Respect

21st April 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been wonderful to meet so many of you already during my first week as headteacher at Millbank Academy. Thank you for such a warm welcome to the school. I am really pleased to be here and to be working with you all.

Millbank Academy has an excellent reputation and I am determined to ensure that the school goes from strength to strength. As you know, I have previously led a variety of schools and I have done a lot of work on teaching a knowledge-based curriculum. My aim is to ensure that your children receive an excellent education in a safe, caring and happy environment.

I was really impressed with assembly this morning. The children were very well behaved and it was lovely to celebrate their achievements. The singing from the choir and from all the children was superb. We are so fortunate to have such excellent music provision.

Please come up and introduce yourselves either in the morning or at the end of the day. I look forward to meeting more of you next week.

Have an enjoyable weekend.

Best wishes,

Dr Matthew Laban

Headteacher
